Word [45 min]

Following the Missions weekend, Pastor Lionel shared on the Church sharing God's grief. There are often sermons about God's greatness and victory in Christ, seldom do we hear about grief and pain. Paul shared in Philippians 3:10 (ESV) that he desired to know God "and the power of His resurrection, and that he may also share His sufferings, becoming like him in His death". As we identify with God's grief for this world, the grief enables us to persevere, to stay on and to do His kingdom's work.

Pastor Lionel mentioned three types of grief:

Grief 1: The wickedness of man

- a. God grieved over the wickedness of man (Genesis 6:5-6)
- b. The Holy Spirit grieved over Israel's ingratitude and rebellion (Isaiah 63:8-10)

Grief 2: The pain that sin brings

- a. Jesus wept over the pains that sin brings to humanity (John 11:33-36)
- b. Jesus paid a high price to remove these pains (Romans 4:25-5:2)
- c. He wants His people to tell others about what He had done (Mark 16:15-16)

Grief 3: The hardness of the leaders' hearts

- a. Jesus grieved when His leaders reneged on their responsibility to shepherd His people (Mark 3:1-6, Matthew 9:35-36)
- b. The reasons for their hardness of heart (Matt 23:5-7, 14)
- c. What about us today? Do we fail in our responsibility to share His Good News to others?

He also shared about the different ways of sharing God's grief:

1. Pray
  - a) For God to give us the burden for the lost
  - b) For the people God has put in our hearts

- c) For opportunity to reach out to them
2. Show love to people
3. Do acts of kindness
4. Take time out for meals with others
5. Share your testimony
6. Invite them to your cell outing
7. Invite them for Christmas Outreach

The idol that has possibly stumbled us today is the pursuit of money, success and a good life. Is there an idol that is holding us back from what Christ has called us to do? We are called to share the gospel (Matthew 9:37-38, Mark 16:15)! Let us pray; let us go and preach the good news!
